Studio Polices and Information

- All new students at Pacific NW Pilates must begin with one private session with a fully certified instructor. This will include a postural analysis and introduction to the basics of STOTT PILATES® so we can evaluate your needs and develop your program. That can be scheduled by calling or emailing our receptionist (see contact info above).
- To book the initial private session, new students must pay a $65 deposit, which can be used to pay for that session at the single private rate OR may be used towards an introductory package for new students (if the package is purchased on or before the day of the initial private session). See our Web site for rates and details.
- All classes and private sessions must be scheduled in advance.
- All fitness packages expire within 6 months from the date of purchase. See cancellation policies below.
- Students practicing pilates before pregnancy can safely continue through pregnancy with permission from a doctor.
- Students should wear comfortable exercise clothes but avoid oversized tops so instructors can observe posture and alignment. Wearing socks is fine, but students may not wear shoes in the studio.
- Please refrain from using perfumes before you come to the studio. Many people are sensitive to fragrances.
- Cell phones should be turned off in the studio. Supervised children must remain in the reception area.
- A $25.00 fee will be applied to any checks that have been returned.
- All instructors at Pacific NW Pilates license space from Pacific NW Pilates and maintain their own business licenses and insurance. They are not employees of Pacific NW Pilates.
- Pacific NW Pilates is a licensed STOTT PILATES training center, so apprentice instructors may fulfill educational requirements by observing Instructor Trainers working with fitness clients. If you are uncomfortable about having an instructor-in-training observe your session, please let your instructor know.

Canceling and Rescheduling Policies

- 24-hour advance notice is required to change or cancel an appointment without charge. Appointments may be cancelled by phone, email or in person. The time of the cancellation will be noted.
- In the event an instructor has to cancel a class, she will make every attempt to cancel with at least 24 hour notice. Students that wish to attend a class should sign-up in advance; this enables the instructor to know you wish to attend and to contact you for any reason. Pacific NW Pilates reserves the right to cancel any class due to an emergency.
- Both parties in a scheduled semi-private session are responsible for canceling the appointment with 24 hours. In the event that just one of the participants in a semi-private session is unable to attend, the other student may upgrade to a private session for an additional $20.00.
- All pre-paid private sessions are fully transferable with 24-hour notice, but are not refundable. Students may apply the price of a pre-paid session towards another class or session or allow a friend or family member to use a pre-paid session (the first session for a new student will be used for evaluation and an introduction to pilates).
